

This project transforms Talat Noi, Bangkok, with deep-sea-inspired adaptive reuse. Featuring king crab and cat toy-inspired fluid design, it parasitizes existing buildings. Scaffolding leads to immersive spaces with soundscapes and purple lighting, symbolizing mystery and security. Fluid Frames brightens up the quiet Talat Noi by creating a vibrant urban landmark.□