I understand it is necessary to gather content for the media showcase at the INDA parade.
But I would really appreciate having freedom regarding what I do with my projects and not being forced to submit my past works (especially ones I don't like) for the parade.

I also feel it is a bit extreme and tyrannical to threaten a grade deduction for my current project for not submitting content from my past project that has already been finished and graded.